

Human Resources

Human resource specialists manage recruitment, employment contracts, induction, and general employee welfare. HR staff in the forest industry often have a large input into employee health and safety, and other training programs, critical in such a safety conscious industry. HR managers need to be well-organized, effective administrators, but also very good at dealing with people at all levels within an organization.

Other job titles include: Employee Relations Manager, Talent Acquisition Specialist.

Education & Training

Most of these occupations require a four-year bachelor's degree, but some do not.

Salary

National Average Salary

$45,440 - $126,540

National Average Hourly

$21.85- $60.84

This job may be right for you if your interests include: enterprising, social & conventional.

This job may be right for you if your skills include: active listening, personnel management & decision making.

This job may be right for you if your values include: relationships, recognition & working conditions.

