

FORESTRY FACTS

WWW.FORESTRYWORKS.COM

Alabama forests provide over 125,000 jobs in timber production and processing

Forestry and forest products production account for 7% of Alabama's entire workforce

Alabama forests generate over $22 billion in timber production & processing revenue

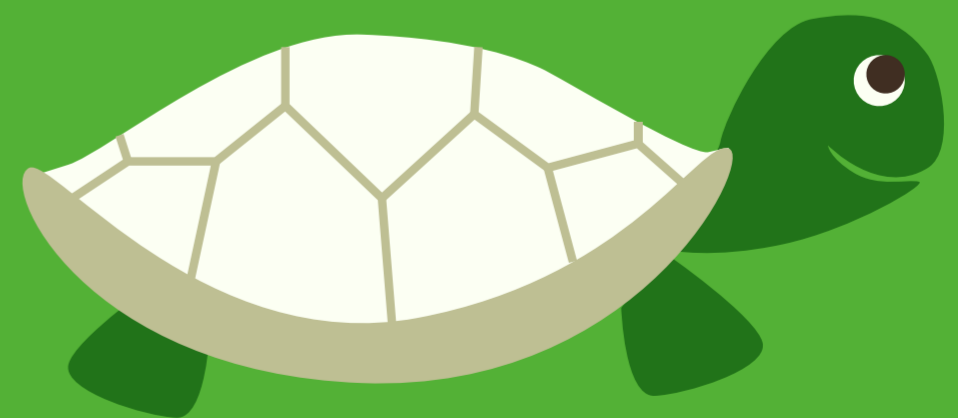

There are over 23 million acres of timberland in Alabama today

Alabama ranks No. 2 in the U.S. in both pulp production and in paper production

There are over 40 different career opportunities in the forestry industry

More than 5 million species of animals depend on forests for their survival