

FOREST FACTS

There are over 40 different career opportunities in the forestry industry

Alabama ranks No. 2 in the U.S. in both pulp production and in paper production

Alabama forests provide over 125,000 jobs in timber production and processing

There are over 23 million acres of timberland in Alabama today

More than 5 million species of animals depend on forests for their survival

Forestry and forest products production account for 7% of Alabama's entire workforce

Alabama forests generate over $22 billion in timber production & processing revenue

Every day, US paper makers recycle enough to fill a 15 mile-long train of boxcars

There are 3 colleges in Alabama that offer degrees in forestry