

Career Coach

Professional career coaches offer valuable guidance and support to students seeking educational and vocational direction. These experts provide personalized advice on course and program selection, as well as assist with class scheduling, study strategies, and career planning. By working closely with students, career coaches help them to make informed decisions and achieve their academic and professional goals.

Other job titles include: Career Counselor, Student Services Coordinator, Student Development Advisor.

Education & Training

Most of these occupations require at minimum a bachelors degree but some require a graduate degree. Degree paths not confined to education and counseling.

Salary

National Average Salary

$38,280 - $98,530

National Average Hourly

$18.40 - $47.37

This job may be right for you if your interests include: social.

This job may be right for you if your skills include: active listening, social perceptiveness & speaking.

This job may be right for you if your values include: relationships, achievement & working conditions.

