

Forestry Technician

Provide technical assistance regarding the conservation of soil, water, forests, or related natural resources. May compile data pertaining to size, content, condition, and other characteristics of forest tracts under the direction of foresters, or train and lead forest workers in forest propagation and fire prevention and suppression.

Other job titles include: Biological Science Aide, Forest Technician, Forestry Aide, Resource Technician, Timber Appraiser.

Education & Training

Most occupations in this zone require training in vocational schools, related on-the-job experience, or an associate's degree. A recognized apprenticeship program may be associated with this occupation.

Salary

National Average Salary

$29,670 - $61,750

National Average Hourly

$14.26 - $29.69

This job may be right for you if your interests include: realistic, investigative & enterprising

This job may be right for you if your skills include: active listening, critical thinking & decision making.

This job may be right for you if your values include: independence, achievement, & working conditions.

