

Game Warden

An exciting and rewarding outdoor job that demands strength, character, and a high degree of self motivation. They plan their day-to-day law enforcement activities under the guidelines of a 40-hour work week with a freedom found in very few jobs.

Other job titles include: Fisheries Enforcement Officer, Natural Resource Officer, State Wildlife Officer, Wildlife Conservation Officer, Wildlife Officer

Education & Training

While some states require a four-year bachelor's degree, others do not. Typically applicants will need at least a high school diploma, be in good physical condition and qualify for specialty training academies which vary by state.

Salary

National Average Salary

$41,200 - $72,500

National Hourly Wage

$19.84 - $34.90

This job may be right for you if your interests include: realistic & investigative

This job may be right for you if your skills include: active listening, critical thinking & decision making.

This job may be right for you if your values include: independence, support & achievement

