

Timber Buyer

A timber buyer is a professional forester, forest technician, or forest worker who specializes in the purchase and resale of standing trees and timber. Timber buyers must be skilled at measuring and evaluating standing timber, negotiating with landowners, loggers, and mills, and ensuring that all contracts between the various parties are satisfied. Timber buyers must thrive in a fast-paced work environment, and good communication skills and attention to detail are crucial.

Other job titles include: Purchasing Agent

Education & Training

Most of these occupations require a four-year bachelor's degree, but some do not.

Salary

National Average Salary

$41,060 - $116,370

National Average Hourly

$19.74 - $55.95

This job may be right for you if your interests include: enterprising, conventional & realistic.

This job may be right for you if your skills include: critical thinking, speaking & decision making.

This job may be right for you if your values include: independence, working conditions & achievement.

