

Truck Driver

Truck drivers in the forest industry may operate tractor-trailer combination or dump trucks to haul wood products; chips, logs, and other forest products to and from facilities. Drivers are required to have a commercial driver's licenses and must maintain a clean driving record. They may work directly for forest products companies or they may be self-employed.

Other job title include: Production Truck Driver, Semi Truck Driver, Over the Road Driver, Line Haul Driver.

Education & Training

These occupations usually require a high school diploma. A Commercial Drivers Licenses (CDL) is required

Salary

National Average Salary

$35,300 - $75,220

National Hourly Wage

$16.97 - $36.16

This job may be right for you if your interests include: realistic & conventional.

This job may be right for you if your skills include: operation and control, monitoring & critical thinking.

This job may be right for you if your values include: support, independence & working conditions.

